- 4.5 The Intermediary shall not make any statements or representations to any Applicant which are inconsistent with the terms of the mortgage or any documentation issued by the Society and shall only issue information provided by the Society where the Society has approved its disclosure to Applicants.
- 4.6 All Applications must be submitted by the Intermediary to the Society with all information, documentation and monies due, the Society will not accept any liability for delays caused by incomplete or inaccurate Applications.
- ### 5 Fees and Payment
- 5.1 The Society shall pay Fees to the Intermediary in respect of each Application introduced to the Society by the Intermediary which shall become payable on the date a contract is entered into between the Society and the Applicant (the "Contract Date").
- 5.2 The Fees shall be the only monies paid by the Society to the Intermediary under or in connection with these Terms

- and shall include every cost and expense of the Intermediary (including VAT).
- 5.3 All Fees shall be payable by the Society to the Intermediary or (if applicable) the Principal no later than 60 days after the Contract Date.
- 5.4 If either Party disputes any Fees paid or payable the Society shall pay such element of the invoice which is undisputed and the Parties will negotiate in good faith to resolve the dispute in relation to the disputed sums.
- 5.5 If any undisputed amount payable under the Agreement is not paid on or before the due date for payment the Intermediary will be entitled to charge interest on all undisputed amounts outstanding at a rate of 2% per annum above the Bank of England Base Rate from the due date until the date of payment.
- 5.6 The Society may withhold payment of Fees if the Society believes the Intermediary has failed to comply with these Terms, including where the Intermediary has failed to disclose to an Applicant the Fees received from the Society in accordance with Applicable Laws.
- 5.7 The Intermediary shall repay Fees to the Society upon request where the Contract Date is amended or cancelled and/or the Principal reasonably requests repayment.
- 5.8 The Society shall be entitled to set off any amounts owing to the Society against any amounts the Society owes to the Intermediary.
- 6 Data Protection
- 6.1 Both Parties acknowledge and agree that each Party is a Data Controller and each will comply at all times with its own obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 6.2 Without prejudice to the generality of this term, each party shall, in relation to any Personal Data Processed in connection with the performance of its obligations under these Terms:
- 6.2.1 ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures, to ensure a level of security which is appropriate to the risk of Processing, to protect against unauthorised or unlawful Processing of Personal Data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, Personal Data in accordance with these Terms (a "Data Security Incident");
- 6.2.2 ensure that all Staff who have access to and/or Process Personal Data are committed to keeping the Personal Data confidential or are under an appropriate obligation of confidentiality;
- 6.2.3 not transfer any Personal Data outside of the United Kingdom without the prior written consent of the other Party;
- 6.2.4 notify the other Party immediately upon becoming aware of a Data Security Incident and in the case of receiving a request from a Data Subject or a Regulator, notify the other Party within 24 hours of receiving such a request;
- 6.2.5 assist and co-operate at all times with the other Party in responding to any Data Security Incident or request from a Data Subject with respect to the provision of information (to include its data record), security, breach notifications, data protection impact assessments and consultations with Regulatory Authorities;
- 6.2.6 at the written direction of the other Party, delete or return all Personal Data provided in connection with these Terms (including any copies and backups thereof) and certify that it has done so, unless required by Applicable Law to store the Personal Data; and
- 6.2.7 maintain complete and accurate records and information to demonstrate its compliance with its obligations under these Terms and allow for audits to ensure compliance.
- 6.3 The Intermediary shall not appoint any third-party processor to Process Personal Data under these Terms without the Society's prior written consent.
- 6.4 The Society may monitor and/or record the Intermediary's telephone conversations and other communications (including those made by Staff of the Intermediary). Any information sent to the Society which is not sent via the Society's secure email facility isn't secure and is sent entirely at the Intermediary's risk.
- 6.5 The Intermediary agrees (and if applicable shall procure the consent of its Staff) to the Society's Fair Processing Notice for Intermediaries.
- 7 Intellectual Property
- 7.1 The Intermediary acknowledges that the Society's Materials and Society Data are the exclusive property of the Society and nothing in these Terms shall be deemed to grant the Intermediary any title or right in the Society's Materials or the Society Data.
- 7.2 Each Party grants to the other Party a royalty free, nontransferable, non-exclusive licence to use the other Party's Intellectual Property Rights solely for the purpose of a Party fulfilling its obligations under these Terms.
- 7.3 The Intermediary must obtain the written approval of the Society before using the Society's logo or distributing marketing literature that refers to the Society and must comply at all times with the Society's brand guidelines which are available on request.
- 7.4 Neither Party will make any announcement regarding these Terms without the prior written consent of the other Party or if required by Applicable Law.
- 8 Liability and Insurance
- 8.1 Nothing in these Terms will or will be interpreted as limiting or excluding the liability of either Party in respect of:
- 8.1.1 death or personal injury arising out of or in connection with that Party's negligence or the negligence of a person for whom that Party is vicariously liable;
- 8.1.2 fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation or the fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation of a person for whom that Party is vicariously liable; and/or
- 8.1.3 any matter for which it is not possible by law to limit or exclude liability.
- 8.2 Subject to term 8.1, neither Party shall be liable to the other for any indirect or consequential loss or damage which arises out of or in connection with these Terms.
- 8.2.1 Subject to term 8.1, the Society shall not be liable to the Intermediary for (whether direct, indirect or consequential) (i) loss of profits; (ii) loss of revenue; (iii) loss of data; and/or (iv) loss of reputation or good will.
- 8.3 Subject to term 8.1, the maximum aggregate liability of the Society:
- 8.3.1 in the aggregate under or in connection with these Terms including in contract, tort, under statute or otherwise shall be limited to an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the Fees paid under these Terms; or (ii) £50,000; and
- 8.3.2 in respect of any individual claim including in contract, tort, under statute or otherwise shall be limited to an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the Fees paid under these Terms in the previous twelve months; or (ii) £10,000.
- 8.4 Subject to term 8.1, the Society shall not be liable to the Intermediary for any Liability other than Liability which arises as a direct result of a breach by the Society of its obligations under these Terms.
- 8.5 The Intermediary will maintain with a reputable insurance company for the duration of these Terms and for a period of six years following termination of these Terms (i) such insurance as is required in order to cover potential liabilities under these Terms; (ii) such insurance as the Intermediary is obliged to maintain by Applicable Law; and (iii) professional indemnity insurance cover of at least £1million per annum for a single and in aggregate claim or professional indemnity insurance cover of an amount equal to or more than that which is required by the FCA Handbook from time to time, whichever is the higher.

- 8.6 The Intermediary shall provide upon the request of the Society evidence of insurance required to be maintained under these Terms.
- 8.7 The Intermediary shall indemnify the Society in full against all Liability the Society or its Staff does or will incur arising out of or in connection with any breach by the Intermediary (including Intermediary Staff) of these Terms.

9 Termination

- 9.1 The Society reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend or terminate these Terms, the appointment of the Intermediary and/or the use of any of the Intermediary's Staff in connection with these Terms at any time on notice to that effect to the Intermediary.
- 9.2 Without prejudice to the Society's other rights or remedies, the Society may terminate these Terms with immediate effect by giving notice to the Intermediary if the Intermediary:
- 9.2.1 ceases to hold or is likely to cease to hold the Permissions;
- 9.2.2 commits a material or persistent breach of these Terms and (if such a breach is remediable) the Intermediary fails to remedy that breach within the time period specified by the Society;
- 9.2.3 commits a material or persistent breach of these Terms and such breach is not remediable;
- 9.2.4 either (i) suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of the Intermediary's debts or the Intermediary is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or the Intermediary admits inability to pay its debts (ii) is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986; (iii) is deemed unable to pay its debts or has no reasonable prospect of doing so, in either case, within the meaning of section 268 of the Insolvency Act 1986; (iv) is subject to bankruptcy and/or (v) is subject to any event that has an effect equivalent or similar to any of the events mentioned in this term 9.2.4 or which may give rise to the Society having concerns regarding the Intermediary's financial condition.
- 9.3 Termination of these Terms will not affect any accrued rights and liabilities of either Party. Terms 8 to 16 together with any other terms which expressly or impliedly are required to give full force and effect to the intention of the Parties shall remain in full force and effect following termination of these Terms.
- 9.4 Upon termination of these Terms the Intermediary shall:
- 9.4.1 ensure that all pending Applications and Applications in progress are immediately transferred back to the Society;
- 9.4.2 provide the Society with such reasonable assistance as may be required in order to ensure the efficient transfer from the Intermediary of Applications; and
- 9.4.3 return to the Society (or delete on the Society's request) all Confidential Information, Society Data and Society Materials in its possession.
- 9.5 All of the Society's Materials and Society Data shall be held at the risk of the Intermediary. Title in the Society's Materials and Society Data shall remain with the Society at all times.
- 9.6 If the Intermediary submits a fraudulent Application, without prejudice to the Society's other rights and remedies, the Society may terminate these Terms with immediate effect in accordance with Term 9.1 and advise other third parties, including, any financial networks, clubs and/or the FCA under the Information from Lenders Scheme.

10 Confidentiality

- 10.1 The Recipient shall keep the Discloser's Confidential Information confidential at all times and, except as provided in these Terms, shall not disclose such Confidential Information to any third party and shall not itself use or exploit such Confidential Information in any way except for the purpose of complying with its obligations under these Terms.

10.2 The Recipient undertakes in relation to the Discloser's Confidential Information:

- 10.2.1 to take the same care in protecting the Discloser's Confidential Information as it takes in protecting its own Confidential Information;
- 10.2.2 only disclose Confidential Information to such of its Staff who need to know the same for the purpose of complying with its obligations under these Terms and provided such persons are under similar obligations of confidentiality as contained in this Term 10; and
- 10.2.3 to notify the Discloser immediately upon discovery of any loss or unauthorised disclosure of the Discloser's Confidential Information and give all reasonable assistance in connection with any necessary remedial action proceedings.
- 10.3 Notwithstanding this Term 10, the Recipient shall be entitled to make any disclosure of Confidential Information required by Applicable Laws, but then only to the extent so required, and provided that the Recipient uses all reasonable endeavours to give the Discloser not less than seven days' notice of such disclosure (save where such notice is prohibited by any Applicable Laws).
- 10.4 The Recipient acknowledges that damages would not be an adequate remedy for failure by the Recipient to comply with the terms of this Term 10 and that the Discloser shall be entitled to injunctive relief in the event of any breach of anticipated breach of this Term 10.

11 Audit

- 11.1 The Intermediary shall permit the Society and/or any persons appointed by the Society and/or any Regulator to have access, with or without notice, during reasonable business hours to any of the Intermediary's premises and/or Materials, systems, documents and Staff.

12 Notices

- 12.1 All notices sent by a Party under or connection with these Terms shall be in the English language and:
- 12.1.1 sent to the receiving Party's registered address by first class post; or
- 12.1.2 delivered or left at the receiving Party's registered address.
- 12.2 Any notice served on a Party in accordance with this Term 12 will be deemed served:
- 12.2.1 if served in accordance with Term 12.1.1, at 9am on the third day following the date of being posted; and
- 12.2.2 if served in accordance with Term 12.1.2, at the time the notice is delivered at the location.
- 12.3 This term shall not apply to service of any document in any action to which the Civil Procedure Rules apply.

13 Assignment and Subcontracting

- 13.1 The Society may at any time assign, transfer, mortgage, charge or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights and obligations under these Terms.
- 13.2 The Intermediary will not be entitled to subcontract, assign, transfer, or deal in any way with any of its rights under these Terms without the prior written consent of the Society.

14 Entire Agreement

- 14.1 These Terms constitute the entire agreement between the Parties and supersede any prior agreement or arrangement between the Parties in respect of its subject matter and:
- 14.1.1 neither Party has entered into these Terms in reliance upon, and will have no remedy in respect of, any misrepresentation, representation or statement which is not expressly set out in these Terms; and
- 14.1.2 nothing in this Term 14 will be construed as limiting or excluding either Party's liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

15 General

- 15.1 The Parties do not intend that any term of these Terms will be enforceable by any person under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
- 15.2 These Terms apply between the Society and the Intermediary and do not create any legal relationship between the Society and the Intermediary's Staff or customers of the Intermediary.
- 15.3 Nothing in these Terms and no action by the Parties will create a partnership or joint venture or provide either Party with the right to bind the other Party or create the relationship of employer or employee.
- 15.4 Each Party is an independent contractor and is entering into these Terms as a principal and not as agent for the benefit of any other.
- 15.5 A delay by either Party in exercising a right or remedy under or in connection with these Terms will not constitute a waiver of that right or remedy or prevent any future action by that Party.
- 15.6 If any term of these Terms is found by any court, body or Regulator to be unenforceable under the laws of any jurisdiction such Term will be deemed removed from these Terms and this will not affect the legality or enforceability of the remainder of these Terms.

16 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- 16.1 These Terms and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with these Terms will be governed by the laws of England.
- 16.2 The courts of England shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to determine any dispute arising out of or in connection with these Terms (including any non- contractual obligations).

- 1.2 Users must ensure that they have read these terms carefully before using the Portal.
- 1.3 By using the Portal, Users are accepting and agreeing to comply with these Terms of Use. Users who do not agree to these Terms of Use must not use the Portal.
- 1.4 The Society may amend these Terms of Use at its discretion from time to time. Users should ensure that they check these terms each time they use the Portal to understand the terms which apply at that time.
- 1.5 Intermediaries are responsible for ensuring that any Staff or any other person acting directly or indirectly on behalf of the Intermediary are aware of and comply with these Terms of Use.
- 1.6 Defined terms used in these Terms of Use shall have the meaning given to them in the Intermediary Terms of Business unless otherwise defined in these Terms of Use.

2 Availability and Changes to the Portal

- 2.1 The Portal is made available free of charge to Users.
- 2.2 The Society makes no guarantee that the Portal, or any content on it, will always be available or use will be uninterrupted. The Society may suspend or withdraw or restrict the availability of all or any part of the Portal for business and operational reasons. The Society will try to give Users reasonable notice (where it is appropriate to do so) of any suspension or withdrawal.
- 2.3 The Portal is only available to Users residing in the United Kingdom.

3 Account Details

- 3.1 Users are responsible for ensuring that any log-in information including user identification and passwords is treated as Confidential Information and is not disclosed to any third party.
- 3.2 Each User accessing the Portal must have their own individual account information. Users must not share account log in details and password information.
- 3.3 The Society has the right to suspend and/or disable any accounts at any time where it has reason to believe that any User has failed to comply with the provisions of these Terms of Use.
- 3.4 If the User knows or suspects that any third party has knowledge of their log in information they must provide prompt notification to the Society by contacting the Society on 03458 48 00 61.

4 Use of Portal material

- 4.1 Users acknowledge that the Society is the owner or licensee of all Intellectual Property Rights in the Portal and the material published on it.
- 4.2 Users may print copies and download extracts of the materials on the Portal for use in connection with the submission of Applications only.
- 4.3 Users must not reverse engineer, alter or modify the Portal or any materials contained thereon.
- 4.4 Users must not use any part of the content on the Portal for commercial purposes without obtaining a licence to do so from the Society (at the Society's sole discretion).
- 4.5 If a User accesses or uses any part of the Portal or its content in breach of these Terms of Use, the right of the User to access and use the Portal will immediately terminate and Users must either return or destroy copies of the content and materials (the choice between return or destruction is at the Society's discretion).

5 Reliance on the Information

- 5.1 The content on the Portal is for general information only. It is not intended to amount to advice. Although the Society will make reasonable efforts to update the information on the Portal, it makes no representations, warranties or guarantees, whether express or implied, that the content on the Portal is accurate, complete or up to date.
- 5.2 The Society is not liable for any links to any third-party sites contained within the Portal.
- 5.3 Any such links are provided for information only and the Society has not approved the content of such third-party sites or the security of such sites.

6 Liability

- 6.1 The Society does not exclude or limit its liability in any way where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for death and personal injury caused by negligence of the Society (or any person for who the Society is vicariously liable) and for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 6.2 The Society excludes all implied conditions, warranties, representations or other terms that may apply to the Portal or any content on it.
- 6.3 The Society will not be liable to any User for any loss or damage, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise, even if foreseeable, arising under or in connection with:
 - 6.3.1 use of, or inability to use, the Portal; or
 - 6.3.2 use of, or reliance on any content displayed on the Portal.
- 6.4 In particular, the Society will not be liable to the User for loss or profits, sales, business or revenue, business interruption, loss of anticipated savings, loss of business opportunity, goodwill or reputation, or any indirect or consequential loss or damage.

7 Viruses

- 7.1 The Society does not guarantee that the Portal will be secure or free from bugs or viruses.
- 7.2 Users should use their own virus protection software.
- 7.3 Users must not misuse the Portal and must not knowingly introduce viruses or other malicious materials or technological materials which may cause harm.
- 7.4 Users must not attempt to gain unauthorised access to the Portal, the server on which the Portal is stored or any server, computer or database connected to the Portal. Users must not attack the Portal via a denial of service attack or a distributed denial-of-service attack. By breaching this provision, Users are committing a criminal offence under the Computer Misuse Act 1990. The Society will report any such breach to the relevant law enforcement authorities and the Society will co-operate with those authorities by disclosing the applicable Users identity to them. In the event of such a breach, a User's right to use the Portal will cease immediately.
