Important Information you need to be aware of:

- These are our standard requirements to give you an indication of what we will typically ask for but we will give you a list of case requirements specific to each application you submit. Please note that the underwriter may ask you for more information if required.
- You must ensure that this information and evidence you supply is accurate and complete. If we can't carry out an assessment of affordability because you have chosen not to provide the information and evidence we have requested, we won't be able to provide the proposed mortgage.
- The application will be cancelled if all items are not received.
- If the application doesn't proceed:
 - the valuation fee will only be refunded if the valuation has not been completed.
 - the product fee and funds transfer fee will be refunded if they have been paid up front.
- Telephone calls may be recorded for training purposes.
- We adhere to the Data Protection Act, which means we collect and hold information for as long as is required by law. This information will be held securely and only for the intended purposes. For further information about how we use personal data please refer to our Use of Personal Information Form, which must be submitted with each application.
- This guide is for the use of FCA authorised intermediaries only. If you are an FCA authorised intermediary and you reproduce any of the information contained in this guide to be used with or to advise customers, then you must ensure that it complies with the Financial Conduct Authority's rules and guidance on financial promotions.

Submitting the items to us:

You can upload documents against the case requirements in the Mortgage Hub once we have accepted a new application from you. It is recommended that you submit all requirements together as soon as possible after submitting the application.

We will tell you whether a certified copy is required with each case requirement. If we need certified copies and to make things easier, you can certify and submit multiple documents / pages using the 'Certification of Supporting Documentation Form' on the forms page on our website:

<http://www.leedsbuildingsociety.co.uk/intermediaries/forms/>

When uploading these documents you are confirming that the information is true and accurate and certify that the documents included with this form are true copies of the originals. You should also make sure that the customer is aware that the case cannot proceed unless the information and evidence provided is accurate and complete.
